1. General Safety Precautions

Please follow these safety precautions to avoid injury and prevent damage to the PFMD.

- Use this product only as specified.
- Only qualified personnel should perform service.
- Use only the power cord specified for this product and certified for the country of use.
- The PFMD is grounded through the grounding conductor in the power cord. To avoid electric shock, the grounding conductor must be connected to earth ground.
- Do not operate the PFMD with any covers removed.
- Keep product surfaces clean and dry.

2. Introduction

a. Product Intended Use

The Photonic Fence Monitoring Device (PFMD) is an optoelectronic system intended for observing and analyzing the behavior of insects in flight.

b. Technical Specifications

Please refer to Appendix A: Technical Specifications

3. Getting Started

Setting up a recording session of in-flight insects using your Photonic Fence Monitoring Device (PFMD) is as simple as pointing the device at the experimental scene, turning it on and erecting the retroreflective backstop. There are a few considerations to keep in mind:

- Your PFMD is designed to operate optimally in one of three range configurations, which you specified at the time of procurement:

Range Configuration	Range from PFMD in which Targets can be Detected
SHORT-RANGE	1.5m – 3m
MID-RANGE	2.5m – 5m
LONG-RANGE	5m – 10m

For best results, erect the retroreflective backstop (instructions provided separately) at the maximal range of your PFMD system.

- The active region of your PFMD is a truncated rectangular pyramid with the 3m x 3m base residing on the backstop. A representative LONG-RANGE configuration is depicted in Figure 1:

Please ensure that the entirety of the experimental scene of interest resides within the active region. The Scene Preview, described in section 4a, can be used as a guide.

- c. The PFMD was designed to support several mounting configurations:

Mounting Configuration	Notes
TRIPOD	A heavy-duty tripod* may be used to support the PFMD, which is equipped with a threaded tripod mount on the base.
FLOOR	The PFMD may be placed on the floor if that is the optimal vantage point. The viewing angle can be adjusted using the tilting mechanism on the front face of the device; use the clamping lever to release and secure the tilting mechanism (Figure 3).
CUSTOM	Alternatively, the PFMD may be placed on any sturdy surface large enough to support the four rubberized feet on the base of the device.

- d. Interacting with the onboard user interface will require the use of a video monitor, keyboard, and mouse. Connect a video monitor* to the HDMI port on the rear panel of the PFMD; use the USB hub furnished in the PFMD kit to connect a keyboard* and mouse* to the USB-2 port on the rear panel of the PFMD. Refer to Figure 2 for reference.
- e. Connect the power supply furnished in the PFMD kit to the power port on the rear panel of the PFMD and plug the other end into an AC power outlet. Press and release the power button to turn the PFMD on; the power button will illuminate. Refer to Figure 2 for reference.

4. Recording Session

- a. Once the PFMD is powered on, the user interface (formally, the PFMD Capture Client) is accessible. The first step is to verify appropriate pointing of the PFMD. The default view of the PFMD user interface (Figure 4) depicts the area visible to each of the two cameras (left and right, in concert comprising the stereoscopic vision system). Use this view to aim the PFMD to optimize the experimental scene visible to the device.

- b. Adjust illumination levels to match the configuration of the experimental scene. The illumination adjustment dialog box is accessed using the SETTINGS button. The goal is to manipulate the Brightness slider for each camera until the portion of interest within each image (left and right) is adequately bright without being blown out. See Figure 5 for reference.

- c. A specified Region of Interest can be used to exclude areas of the scene which are not germane to the experiment. Setting the Region of Interest is accomplished using the ROI toggle and subsequently adjusting the green rectangular ROI box for each camera independently. Eliminating the Region of Interest is accomplished using the CLEAR ROI button. See Figure 6 for reference.

- d. Once the product is oriented appropriately and illumination and ROI are optimized, attention is turned to the RUN TIMED, START, and STOP buttons under the camera images. Selecting the RUN TIMED option allows the user to run the recording for a predetermined segment of time (specified in units of minutes). Conversely, if the experiment duration is not fixed, the user is able to initiate the recording using the START button and terminate it manually at a later time using the STOP button. See Figure 7 for reference.

5. Data Export and Deletion

Once a recording is terminated it appears in the list on the left portion of the window. Exporting a data file is accomplished as follows:

- Insert a USB-3 capable external mass storage device* into the USB-3 port (Figure 2).
- Select the data file to be exported from the list on the left portion of the window.
- Click the EXPORT SELECTED button (Figure 8).
- Select the external mass storage device from the Please Select output location dialog box

A data file that is no longer necessary can be deleted by selecting the DELETE SELECTED button and confirming the action in the ensuing dialog box (Figure 9)

6. Transport, Storage and Mounting

- a. The PFMD is delivered in packaging which was designed to keep it safe during transport and storage. Please retain this original packaging and use it to transport and store the PFMD when it is not being utilized for data collection.
- b. When carrying the PFMD outside of its packaging, please support it using both handles on the lid of the device. The handles can be folded flat against the lid when not in use.

7. Troubleshooting

Deposits paid for Hardware are nonrefundable.

Availability. Purchases of Hardware are subject to estimated availability as described on the Photonic Sentry website at the time that you place your order or as otherwise communicated to you by Photonic Sentry. Any availability or shipping date for an accepted order is an estimate only, and the actual shipping date for any accepted order will depend on a variety of factors including manufacturing schedule, the date of your order, and the date your payment was received in full by Photonic Sentry.

Pricing. Photonic Sentry reserves the right to determine pricing for Hardware and Services, as well as charges for shipping Hardware. Photonic Sentry will make reasonable efforts to keep pricing information published on the website up to date. Photonic Sentry, at its sole discretion, may make promotional offers with different features and different pricing to any of Photonic Sentry's customers. These promotional offers, unless made to you, will not apply to your offer or these Terms. Except in the case of sales tax for certain locations which may be identified when payment is taken, all import duties, taxes, tariffs, and other charges are not included in the Hardware or Services price or shipping costs. These charges are your responsibility. Please check with your state and country's customs office to determine if there will be additional costs prior to completing your order. All orders for Hardware must be paid in full, including shipping, prior to shipment by Photonic Sentry of Hardware to you. Photonic Sentry reserves the right to suspend shipment and performance until full payment is received.

Invoice Terms. You may request invoice terms to pay for Hardware or Services by contacting Photonic Sentry at info@photronicsentry.com. Photonic Sentry may grant invoice terms in its sole discretion. If granted, the invoice will state the purchase price for all Hardware or Services (as applicable) plus any freight, taxes, insurance or other applicable costs, and you will pay all invoiced amounts by electronic fund transfer to an account identified by Photonic Sentry or by sending a check directly to Photonic Sentry within the time specified in the invoice terms. All payments by you will be made in U.S. dollars.

Should you fail to designate a carrier or forwarding agent, Photonic Sentry will make such designation. Shipment will be F.O.B. manufacturer's facility as specified in the invoice, (the "Delivery Point"), at which time risk of loss and title will pass to you. All freight, insurance and other shipping expenses from the Delivery Point, as well as any special packing expenses requested by you, will be borne by you. Photonic Sentry reserves the right in its sole discretion to allocate inventories and current production when it determines such allocation is necessary.

Export Control. You acknowledge that Hardware and Services may be subject to export control laws and other laws and regulations of the United States and other countries, and that if Photonic Sentry ships Hardware to you, Hardware may be impounded or otherwise confiscated by customs or other authorities. You are responsible for compliance with all applicable export control laws and regulations. You represent that you will not export, re-export, or transfer indirectly or directly any Hardware, or use any Service, outside of the United States without obtaining proper authorization from the applicable government agencies. You will defend and hold Photonic Sentry harmless against all claims, damages, or liability resulting from breach of the foregoing.

Inspection. You should carefully examine all deliveries of Hardware upon delivery, and notify Photonic Sentry of any alleged error, shortage, defect or non-conformity of Hardware within 5 days after receipt. Your failure to examine and report will constitute a waiver of any claim against Photonic Sentry arising under these Terms or by law with respect to any such error, shortage, defect, or non-conformity reasonably discoverable by examination. You agree to make any and all claims for damage or loss in transit against the carrier.

Subscription Service. Use of the Services may require automatically recurring payments for periodic charges ("Subscription Services"). Photonic Sentry may offer a variety of Subscription Services, including special promotional plans, which may have differing conditions and limitations, which will be disclosed to you at sign-up or in other communications made available to you. If you decide to activate a Subscription Service, and unless Photonic Sentry approves invoice terms for you, you authorize Photonic Sentry to periodically charge, on a going-forward basis and until cancellation of either the recurring payments or your account, all accrued sums on or before the payment due date for the accrued sums. The “Subscription Billing Date” is the date when you purchase your first subscription to the Service. Your account will be charged automatically on the Subscription Billing Date all applicable fees for the next subscription period. The subscription will continue unless and until you cancel your subscription or we terminate it. You must cancel your subscription before it renews in order to avoid billing of the next periodic subscription fee to your account. We will bill the periodic subscription fee to the payment method you provide to us during registration (or to a different payment method if you change your payment information). To ensure uninterrupted service and to enable you to conveniently add additional user accounts, Photonic Sentry or its billing providers (which may not be affiliated with Photonic Sentry) may store your payment details on file. If Photonic Sentry is unable to charge your designated payment method for any reason, Photonic Sentry reserves the right to suspend your paid membership until we receive payment and a working designated payment method for future payments. Please note that it is your responsibility to maintain current credit card or alternate billing information on file with Photonic Sentry or its billing service provider. Photonic Sentry may increase the subscription fee for any subsequent subscription period if Photonic Sentry gives you advance notice of the increase before it applies. Such notice will be sent to the email address which you provide to Photonic Sentry. You may cancel a Subscription Service by contacting us at: customers@photonic Sentry.com. Payments for Subscription Services are nonrefundable. If you cancel, change your Subscription Service, or if your account is otherwise terminated under these Terms, you will not receive a credit or refund, including for partially unused periods of a Subscription Service.

Trial Periods. From time to time, Photonic Sentry may offer trials of Subscription Services for a specified period without payment or at a reduced rate (a “Trial”). Photonic Sentry may determine your eligibility for a Trial and withdraw or modify a Trial at any time without prior notice and with no liability, to the extent permitted under applicable law. For some Trials, Photonic Sentry may require you to provide your payment details to start the Trial. By providing such details you agree that Photonic Sentry may automatically begin charging you for the Subscription Service on the first day following the end of the Trial and thereafter in accordance with the paragraph above. IF YOU DO NOT WANT THIS CHARGE, YOU MUST CANCEL THE APPLICABLE SUBSCRIPTION SERVICE BEFORE THE END OF THE TRIAL WITHIN YOUR ACCOUNT OR BY CONTACTING PHOTONIC SENTRY AT customers@photonic Sentry.com.

Delinquent Accounts. Photonic Sentry may suspend or terminate access to the Service for any account for which any amount is due but unpaid. In addition to the amount due for the Service, a delinquent account will be charged with fees or charges that are incidental to any chargeback or collection of any unpaid amount, including collection fees.

Support. You may request support for the Service, including any problems with Hardware, by contacting us at customers@photonic Sentry.com. Photonic Sentry is under no obligation to provide specific levels of support, or to meet specific response or resolution times.

In the event that Photonic Sentry terminates the Services without cause, Photonic Sentry's maximum liability will be limited to refund of any amounts actually paid in advance for periods of Service not yet provided, and in the event of complete termination of the Services without cause, for a pro-rated portion of the price of hardware actually paid within the prior 12 months. Photonic Sentry will have no other liability whatsoever on account of any change to the Services or any suspension or termination of your access to or use of the Services.

Additional Service Terms. Your use of the Services is subject to all additional terms, policies, rules, or guidelines applicable to the Service or certain features of the Services that Photonic Sentry may post on or link to from the Services (the "Additional Service Terms"), such as end-user license agreements for any downloadable software applications, user manuals, or rules, instructions, or directives that apply to a particular feature or content on the Services. All Additional Service Terms are incorporated by this reference into, and made a part of, these Terms.

Hardware Warranty

Photonic Sentry warrants that unmodified Hardware will be free from defects in materials and workmanship for one year after delivery to the Delivery Point ("Hardware Warranty"). Any modification to the Hardware voids the Hardware Warranty. Photonic Sentry may, in its sole discretion, extend the Hardware Warranty. To be eligible for relief under the Hardware Warranty, you must request return material authorization by contacting Photonic Sentry at customers@photonic Sentry.com, and follow the procedures to return the device as specified by Photonic Sentry. Return Hardware must be shipped at customer expense. Upon determining whether the Hardware is defective, Photonic Sentry may reimburse for shipping cost of Hardware returned for service during the Hardware Warranty. Photonic Sentry will, at its option and expense, repair or replace any Hardware or replaceable sub-assembly thereof that does not conform to the Hardware Warranty, subject to your notification of Photonic Sentry that such Hardware or sub-assembly does not comply with the warranties detailed in this paragraph, and subject to your compliance with the warranty return procedure detailed in these Terms. Photonic Sentry may use new or reconditioned replacement parts or Hardware units. Repaired or replaced Hardware shall be warranted free of defects in materials and workmanship for the remainder of the original Hardware Warranty pertaining to the originally purchased Hardware or for thirty (30) days from the date of return of the repaired or replaced Hardware to the customer, whichever is longer. This paragraph states your sole and exclusive remedy, and Photonic Sentry's sole and exclusive liability, for failure of Hardware to conform to the Hardware Warranty.
